What are Encounter best practices?

General

- Develop your own reporting capabilities that monitor volume and timeliness at the individual practitioner level
- Incentivize office staff to submit encounters based on Health Net's performance standards

Volume

- Review Daily Encounter Batch reports to ensure data submitted through Transunion has reached Health Net
- Review monthly accepted data reports to identify deficiencies

Timeliness

- Submit encounters to TU/HN on a weekly basis

Rejections

- Develop a standard process whereby rejected encounters are corrected w/in 30-60 days in TU's ClearIQ portal
- Prioritize the common reasons for encounter rejections by group and train providers on the appropriate submission process

Appendix B: In what instance is encounter data accepted via an ASM format and who is responsible for receiving this data?

For encounter reporting purposes the required method to submit encounters is via the X12-837 electronic encounter file. Some of the instances in which an ASM format is accepted are as follows:

- If the group is changing systems and unable to create a file for a period of time.
- If the group is having problems populating a segment in a file and the time to fix the issue will be substantial.
- If data is rejecting in large volumes and the issue is being looked into but not able to be fixed in an accepted timely manner.
- The ASM data is received by the HEDIS or RAF department for inclusion into their perspective reporting.

Appendix E: How many diagnosis codes can be captured on 837?

Diagnosis - the 837 professional claim record can contain up to 12 codes. The 837 institutional claim records can contain up to 27 codes. This can potentially be a significant loss of volume of diagnosis codes per claim record if the encounter record is not received and accepted by Health Net.

In order to work around the 837 file limitation on the number of diagnosis codes that can be sent in one claim record, the same claim can be sent again with additional diagnoses codes. Health Net will reject the encounter as duplicate but accept the additional diagnoses and add them to the original claim record.

Kbase is capable of storing up to 80 diagnosis codes per encounter.

Procedures - the 837 service line procedure code volume limit that can be submitted per claim record is 50 for professional and 999 for institutional.

NOTE! If the record contains more procedure codes than the 837 allows, additional codes will need to be added to a new claim record, do not include previously submitted and accepted procedure codes in the new claim record.
